PRINCIPALS REPORT

The greenery sales were $19,117 which is up from last year sales of around $15,000. This leaves with a profit of $7134.35 after an expense of $92 for advertising.

The school mall brought in a profit of $734.56 and an additional $950.00 worth of gift certificates for the teachers classrooms.

The Mystery Dinner Theater profit was $9,608.09

The Fish House Raffle is going ok we have sold 700 tickets thus far and we need a big social media push this last few weeks to reach our goal of 1,000 tickets.

The gala theme for 2019 has been established at Hollywood (Glamour).

The school is required to complete 2 Stay Safe Drills which are lockdown drills throughout the year. One is a preplanned drill and the 2nd is a non preplanned drill.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The student council held a pajama day fundraiser for Tye Schaefer and raised $516 for his medical funds.

They are preparing the Thanksgiving meal shopping list and delivery to the Food Shelf next week.

The Blessing Box project is coming along really nice and have many donations.

The talent show has been set for Wednesday, December 19 at 1:00 pm.

OLD BUSINESS

The accreditation review was completed and the only deficiency the school received was in teaching to state standards. Which basically we need to complete some professional development to increase our standards and depth of knowledge by February 1. We will then be good for another

5 years. Mrs. Anderson received many great compliments on the organization of the cumulative files. Nice job Mrs. Anderson, Julie and the whole staff!!

NEW BUSINESS

No new business was added to the agenda.

Next Meeting January 14 at 6:15 pm.

The Closing Prayer was recited.

The meeting was adjourned by Rondi Scoular and seconded by Scott Wiese.

Respectfully submitted:

Rondi Scoular
