PRINCIPAL'S REPORT

Greenery sales this year were very successful. There were $20,079 in sales with approximately $7,150 in profit minus advertising expenses. Mark and Dena VanLith will use there semi and a trailer donated by David Giesen to pick up the order.

Sara Weinberg is going to donate some time to have an art afternoon with the students on November 26.

The Christmas Program this year will be December 11 and has a Country Theme. The students will wear jeans and flannel shirts. Catholic United Financial will donate cookies for after the program.

The Gala Theme has been set as Kentucky Derby with big hats and Easter colors. It has been set for April 24 and Brittany Pauli and Nicole Brehmer are busy planning.

STUDENT COUNCIL NEWS

The Student Council members took the cards over to the St. Williams residents and they residents loved them. They have made up a 30 days of Thankfulness bulletin board where everyday a new idea is revealed. They are busy planning their Thanksgiving meals for two families. They had two turkeys donated. They are planning a caramel apple bar to have for the students Wednesday before Thanksgiving break. They are still working on details and plan for the Christmas Blessing Boxes. The talent show has been set for December 18 at 1:00 pm.

NEW BUSINESS

Every Tuesday different classes have been going to St. Williams to participate in Mass and/or singing with residents. It was brought to Fr. Gary's attention at the parish council meeting that many individuals/couples in town have Thrivent Financial Bucks that can be donated to the school for educational needs or the LIFE group for their needs such as decorating for events. We would like to get more information out to Parish members to maybe find some unused dollars.

Next meeting is set for January 13 at 6:15 pm.

Closing prayer was recited.

Motion to adjourn by Scott Wiese and seconded by Chris Kelly.

Respectfully submitted:

Rondi Scoular
