Mystery Dinner Theater/Grandparents Day

***PLEASE NOTE***

There has been a change to the date of this year's Mystery Dinner Theater. It is now scheduled for December 8 and 9. Please make this change on your school calendars.

We will keep Grandparents Day on November 17 and the Scholastic Book Fair will run from November 11-17.

Did you know?

*The month of October is the Month of the Rosary. What a great opportunity for parents to pray with their children together as a family.

*Friday, September 29 is the last day to wear shorts until May 1!

From the Music Room:

Share the Music Day is coming: Thursday Oct. 5 during music class. Plan ahead! Students in Grades 1-6 can sing a solo, duet with a friend, or group song that students work on outside of music class, share a dance routine, play our piano or any of our classroom instruments (except the guitar - that is only for birthdays!), play a band or orchestra instrument, or conduct the class in a favorite hymn, MusicPlay song or game. Many students like to choose a popular song on YouTube to sing or dance along with; please preview these videos to be sure we don't run into anything inappropriate! Thank you! Also, feel free to send me an email with the song title....several times students have been prepared to sing a song with YouTube, but they can't remember the name of it, and I can't look it up for them! All students are encouraged to share, but even if they don't, they are learning good audience etiquette, good listening skills, and how to give positive feedback to their classmates.
